Iranian film awarded at Italy's FilmFest

Rome, Oct 27, IRNA - The Iranian film 'Zona' directed by Toofan Nahan Qodrati won the award for the best short film in Italy's 19th International Film Festival called Fiaticorti.

Zona is the story of a man who is so frustrated that he has turned into an enemy of his loved ones.

500 short films from 120 countries had taken part in the festival, out of which 23 films, including Zona, advanced to the final phase to compete against each other.

The festival kicked off on October 5 and ended on October 26.
